DAY 1 / PEST

First impressions of Budapest

MORNING

Begin at St Stephen's Basilica and make your way through the central Pest streets towards the Danube.

AFTERNOON

Follow the riverfront to Parliament exterior and the Shoes on the Danube Bank. Interior tours require separate advance availability.

EVENING

See the bridges at dusk and eat in central Pest. Keep the night light before tomorrow's Buda walk.

WHY THIS ORDER

The sights sit along one central-Pest and riverfront corridor.

EAT NEARBY

Central Pest; book a specific restaurant yourself if desired.

IF THE WEATHER TURNS

Use a short indoor sight and café instead of the long river walk.

BOOK OR CHECK

Check Basilica and Parliament conditions for your visit.

DAY 2 / BUDA

Castle Hill without a rush

MORNING

Travel to Castle Hill and enjoy Fisherman's Bastion and Matthias Church exteriors. Add a paid interior only if time and opening suit.

AFTERNOON

Continue through Buda Castle and take a long lunch. Choose one museum if you wish rather than racing through multiple.

EVENING

Look back towards Pest from the river and prepare a small overnight bag for Pécs.

WHY THIS ORDER

A Buda-only day reduces unnecessary crossings.

EAT NEARBY

Lunch around the Castle District or below the hill.

IF THE WEATHER TURNS

Select a Castle District interior and café.

BOOK OR CHECK

Check any museum and terrace fees; buy the Pécs transport ticket independently.

DAY 3 / TRAVEL + PÉCS

South to the city of Pécs

MORNING

Leave Budapest for Pécs on a service suited to your date; check the departure station, transfers and seat needs with the operator before purchase.

AFTERNOON

Drop luggage at your booked Pécs accommodation, then explore Széchenyi Square and the compact central streets. Choose one Roman or Ottoman heritage visit if open.

EVENING

Stay overnight in Pécs. A local dinner and short central walk are enough after the journey.

WHY THIS ORDER

Travel first, then stay within the compact old centre; avoid a late transfer straight to Villány.

EAT NEARBY

Choose a Pécs centre restaurant after checking its actual hours.

IF THE WEATHER TURNS

Spend more time in one museum or cathedral-area interior.

BOOK OR CHECK

Book one night in Pécs separately; check transport and venue hours.

DAY 4 / WINE REGION

Villány, then back to Budapest

MORNING

Use a prechecked transfer, suitable regional service or guided visit from Pécs to Villány. Start with the village and its cellar landscape rather than assuming a tasting is available on arrival.

AFTERNOON

Enjoy a booked tasting if you drink wine, or a village lunch and scenic walk if you do not. Allow ample time for the transfer back through Pécs.

EVENING

Return to Budapest on a service you have checked in advance. This is a travel evening, not an extra sightseeing window.

WHY THIS ORDER

A Pécs overnight puts Villány within an achievable second regional day.

EAT NEARBY

Eat in Villány or Pécs; confirm restaurant and transport timings together.

IF THE WEATHER TURNS

Shorten outdoor walking and use a booked indoor cellar or return earlier.

BOOK OR CHECK

Do not drink and drive. Check the tasting booking, local connection and last Budapest-bound service.

DAY 5 / CITY PARK

A Budapest day to breathe

MORNING

Ride Andrassy Avenue and see Heroes' Square without a timed rush after the previous travel day.

AFTERNOON

Choose City Park, a museum, or a suitable bath with independently booked admission. Keep one option rather than three.

EVENING

Finish along the Danube or enjoy a final relaxed dinner close to your accommodation.

WHY THIS ORDER

A low-transfer city day gives the regional excursion room to breathe.

EAT NEARBY

City Park or the central district where you are staying.

IF THE WEATHER TURNS

Swap park time for an indoor museum and café.

BOOK OR CHECK

Confirm bath entry conditions and current prices; no attraction is included in this PDF.
